CALL FOR PAPERS

(1st announcement – February 2023)

9th “ENTERYNG” WORKSHOP (ENTrepreEurship Research workshop for YouNG scholars)

Workshop organized by the University of Bergamo, 25-26 May 2023

Letters, Philosophy, Communication Campus

Submission Deadline: 15th April 2023

The ENTERYNG WORKSHOP “ENTrepreEurship Research workshop for YouNG scholars” represents an opportunity for PhD students and early-career scholars to discuss their research collecting constructive feedbacks from a group of scholars that gathered around the workshop along the years. In addition to facilitating fruitful discussions, in fact, this research workshop supports the development of an international community of early-career researchers interested in entrepreneurship, innovation, international entrepreneurship and family business, connecting them with more senior scholars. Together with specific feedback on their working papers, participants will have the opportunity to attend keynote speeches by internationally renowned scholars, which are aimed to stimulate provocative reflections on one’s own research and career. Finally, the workshop activities are aimed at offering participants valuable suggestions and practical-oriented advice on crafting high quality research papers, targeting highly ranked journals, identifying intriguing research questions, as well as presenting research to academic audiences. The 9th edition will be hosted and organized by the University of Bergamo.

Keynote speakers:

Howard Aldrich, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

David Audretsch, Indiana University

Erik Lehmann, University of Augsburg

Stefano Paleari, University of Bergamo

Workshop conveners:

Davide Hahn and Tommaso Minola, University of Bergamo

Ivana Quinto and Pierluigi Rippa, University of Naples Federico II

Giovanna Magnani and Antonella Zucchella, University of Pavia

Target group and eligibility

The target group of the workshop is made of PhD students and early-career scholars (e.g., post-docs) whose research endeavors focus on entrepreneurship, innovation, family business or international entrepreneurship. Specifically, the workshop represents a valuable opportunity for doctoral students at any stage of their PhD journey to present their work in a friendly environment and to attend activities aimed at improving their research capabilities. More in general, thanks to the presence of keynote speeches by internationally renowned scholars and of the engaged community of scholars involved in “ENTERYNG”, the workshop is suitable more broadly to early-career scholars in the management and applied economics fields that wish to collect valuable feedbacks on their research and refine their knowledge on how to craft high quality research papers.

Application and selection process

- Applicants aiming to present their paper are requested to submit a full paper (which should not exceed 30 pages including figures and bibliography) or an extended abstract (which should not exceed 10 pages including tables, figures and bibliography).
- Participants will have 15 minutes to present their working papers. Additional 15 minutes will be devoted to questions and constructive feedback from the session chair and from the audience.
- Applicants that wish to participate in the workshop without presenting a working paper are requested to email a CV and a statement of their motivation in participating in the workshop.
