FEDERICA GIOFFREDI

The home owner

was born in Naples in 1972. Daughter of the offshore world champion Antonio, She moved to Milan at a very young age, dwelling there for a decade, successfully undertaking a career as a broker. Decisive for her artistic career were the following years spent in Bali, where her great passion is realized, transforming a hobby, practiced with passion and tenacity to a reality of life: her immortalizing scenes and images will mark what will be her artistic and photographic Journey Once returned to Naples, she will make photography her profession: the natural awareness of the photographic instrument and her propensity to capture images, is the ground on which she feeds her stylistic figure. Today Federica Gioffredi is a photographer who is able to transform a shot of everyday life in an art image: from each photo emerges her inner world living parallel to the real One.

She has exhibited her works in solo and collective exhibitions, and in national and international art reviews. Her works have also been chosen for many publications. She has exhibited her pictures in personal and group exhibitions at national and international level. Her work has also been chosen for official publications. Between 2018 and 2019, she made her exhibition "Due secoli dopo. Da Napoli a Martina Franca" (After two centuries. From Naples to Martina Franca) with the partnership of the MiBact and the Treccani Institute. Her work can be seen in pretigious locations such as Martina Franca (Palazzo ducale), Ischia (Giardini Ravino) and in Rome in the headquarters of Treccani Institute.

In september 2021 she participated to the XVII Vernice Art Fair exhibition in Forlì, where she placed second for the "Coine 'per l'arte" prize with her picture "The Balls"(Paris). Her work is historicized in the Catalog of Modern Italian Art / CAM number 57 and 58, produced by Editoriale Giorgio Mondadori.

She dwells and works in Naples.
